

IN ORDER TO PROMOTE A HEALTHY ENVIRONMENT FOR CHILDREN IT IS IMPORTANT FOR PARENTS TO _____

Be Positive-

about the other parent and do not try to turn the children against him or her.

Provide-

emergency information to the other parent.

Remember-

that child-support and visitation are two separate legal issues.

Be Prompt-

and consistent with appointments involving the children.

Understand-

curiosity about the other parent is normal but do not question the children regarding the activities of the other parent.

Keep-

your child's safety in mind. Children four and under must be restrained in a car seat. Children between the ages of 5 and 8, or up to 80 lbs, must use a booster seat.
